THIRTEENTH CONGRESS

HOUSE BILL NO. 528

INTRODUCED BY HONORABLE FRED H. CASTRO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to grant appropriate civil service eligibility to casual or contractual employees in the government who have continuously served therein for at least ten (10) years.

Casual and contractual employees of the government are part of the civil service. They are likewise employed on the basis of their qualifications or merit and fitness. However, they can not be given permanent appointment due to lack of appropriate civil service eligibility.

In 1990, Republic Act No. 6850 was passed granting civil service eligibility to government employees appointed under probation or temporary status who have rendered a total of seven (7) years of efficient service. Likewise in 1995, barangay health workers who have rendered five (5) years of continuous service were granted civil service eligibility through Republic Act No. 7833.

If these group of government employees were given such privilege, the same should also be extended to other groups of similar status such as casual and contractual employees in accordance with the equal protection clause as guaranteed by the Constitution. Furthermore, this measure has the objective of promoting efficient government service as frequent turnover of personnel in the government will be avoided.

Hence, the approval of this bill is highly recommended.
