THIRTEENTH CONGRESS

First Regular Session

House Bill No. 647

INTRODUCED BY HONORABLE MONICO O. PUENTEVELLA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to recognize and acknowledge the sacrifices of our Barangay Tanod brothers.

The Barangay Tanods are always in the forefront in maintaining the peace and order situation in our most basic government unit, the Barangay. Whenever peace and order is threatened, Barangay Tanods are usually the first on the scene and are usually the first ones to be called than the policemen. Law enforcement is made easier when our local law enforcement units and the barangay coordinate and cooperate in fulfilling their mandate to protect the people.

That despite their lack of proper arms and defenses, they bravely face the hazards and still faithfully perform the tasks they were sworn to discharge.

Yet, the existing laws have not fully recognized their sacrifices and worth to our communities. They face the hazards yet receive less than the other barangay officials.

In view of the foregoing, and to encourage our brother Barangay Tanods to further perform their jobs well and to recognize their selfless efforts to maintain the peace and tranquility in their locality, the approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
