First Regular Session

House Bill No. 750

Introduced by Rep. Roberto C. Cajés

EXPLANATORY

This bill seeks to convert the provincial road from Barangay Fatima to Biabas through Barangays Katarungan, Tipolo, Union, and Sinandigan of the Municipality of Ubay, leading to the municipality of Mabini, Province of Bohol into a national road.

This road proposed to be converted into a national road leads toward the national highway of the municipality of Mabini, linking the municipality of Ubay and the Municipality of Mabini from one end of the national highway to the other end of the national highway in the eastern part of Bohol, thereby enhancing commerce and industry in the said municipalities.

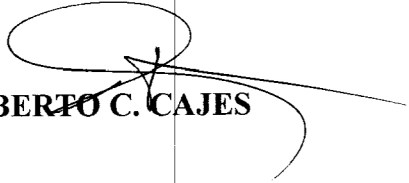

The road urged to be nationalized traverse through productive agricultural lands of both the municipalities of Ubay and Mabini, which are planted to rice, corn, cassava, banana, romblon, coconut, and others.

The municipal government of Ubay has strongly initiated for the conversion of these provincial roads into a national road in order that the same can be properly maintained at all times, since passenger and private vehicles can now regularly travel through the said route.

The LGU of Ubay undertakes to secure the additional road right-of-way requirement for the national highway.

Finally, the road conversion will likewise give convenience and will offer a safe highway for the traveling public, as well as the enhancement of the economic development of the town of Ubay, which is part of the second district of Bohol, and that of Mabini, which is already part of the third district.

Hence, approval of this bill is earnestly requested.
