

Republic of the Philippines

THIRTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 832

Introduced by Honorable Gilberto C. Teodoro, Jr.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to establish a National High School in Barangay Malacampa in the Municipality of Camiling, Province of Tarlac, to be known as the Malacampa National High School.

The establishment of a public secondary school will cater to the students not only from Barangay Malacampa but also from other neighboring barangays of Camiling, Tarlac. Presently, there are only four national high schools existing, all of which are situated in the far-flung barangays of Bilad, Marawi, Sinulatan 1st and Birbira. This despite the fact that, Barangay Malacampa has the biggest population and land area compared to the above-mentioned barangays of Camiling, Tarlac.

Further, the establishment of a national high school will make education more accessible to a considerable number of young students, most of whom coming from poor families, mainly farmers of small landholdings. Thus, for this reason, there is an imperative need for the establishment of a national high school in Barangay Malacampa, Camiling Tarlac, to provide the youth, especially the underprivileged with access to low-cost but high quality public secondary education.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
