EXPLANATORY NOTE

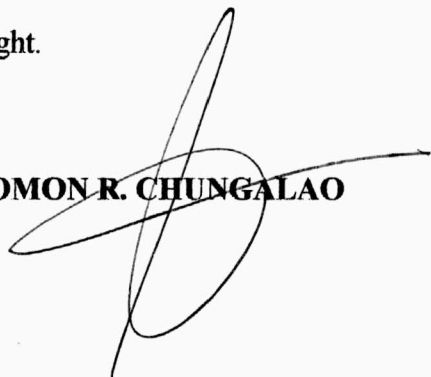

This bill seeks to name the existing Philippine National Police Provincial Headquarters in the Municipality of Lagawe, Province of Ifugao to be known as Camp Col. Joaquin P. Dunuan.

The late Col. Joaquin P. Dunuan was the highest ranking army officer from Ifugao during the Second World War. Under his able leadership and efficient command as Battalion Commander of the 3rd Battalion, 11th Infantry, United States Armed Forces in Northern Luzon (USAFIP-NL), he wrested and liberated from the Japanese Imperial Army the Northern Areas of Cagayan, Kalinga, Apayao, Bontoc, Mt. Province and the Northern part of Ifugao during Second World War.

It is only fitting for the Province of Ifugao to honor and perpetrate the name of one of its sons who has displayed outstanding and exemplary dedication to public service in times of peace and war. By naming the PNP Ifugao Provincial Head Quarters in honor of the late Col. Joaquin P.
