Thirteenth Congress

First Regular Session

House Bill No. 1087

Introduced by REPRESENTATIVE EDGAR T. ESPINOSA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Bill provides for the establishment of a museum in the Province of Guimaras National Museum.

Rich in history and cultural heritage, Guimaras, unlike other provinces has no museum to speak of which could house numerous artifacts, relics, works of art, ethnographic manuscripts and other objects found all over the province. With the diversity of cultures in the country, it is imperative that these valuable symbol of local history and material culture are properly collected, catalogued, displayed and preserved to kindle a deep sense of pride among Guimaras people especially among its youth.

The approval of this bill is thus earnestly sought.
