First Regular Session
House Bill No. 1725

Introduced by HON. EXEQUIEL B. JAVIER

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to establish a national high school in Barangay Tubudan, San Remigio, Antique. The municipality of San Remigio has two (2) high schools, one located in Barangay Barangbang and the other in Barangay Bugo. The high school in Barangay Barangbang serves the elementary graduates from the poblacion and neighboring barangays while the high school in Barangay Bugo serves the students from the northern interior barangays of San Remigio.

Both high schools, however, are too far, hence, not accessible to elementary graduates coming from the southern interior barangays of San Remigio.

The proposed high school in Barangay Tubudan, San Remigio, will serve the elementary graduates from the following barangays, Tubudan, Osorio I, Osorio II, Agricola, Cabladan, Cabanbanan, La Union, Nagbangi I, Nagbangi II, and Aningalan. Most of the children in these barangays either have no education at all due to the futility of sending the children to elementary schools since there is no accessible secondary education after graduating from these elementary schools. The literacy rate in these barangays is very high.

Hence, a secondary school in this part of San Remigio will considerably reduce the illiteracy rate and provide the children in the southern mountain barangays of San Remigio with a brighter future.

Accordingly, the urgency for the approval of this bill.
