THIRTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 2179

Introduced by HON. GENEROSO DC. TULAGAN

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to rename the Baloling Bridge situated at the Poblacion, Municipality of Mapandan, Third District of Pangasinan to be known as Honorable Cesar M. Calimlim Bridge.

Honorable Cesar M. Calimlim served his term as the Municipal Mayor of Mapandan, Pangasinan from 1998 up to 1999. During his service, he envisioned for a greater Mapandan by spearheading numerous agricultural and infrastructure projects.

Honorable Cesar M. Calimlim is an epitome of a man of action, a man for others, and a man for the masses. He has served as a Municipal Mayor in a short time but he was an example of a public servant who willingly served the people of Mapandan by giving his full self. He had great dreams for Mapandan and his accomplishments would have been greater had death not cut short his service as a public servant. Further, Honorable Calimlim, is very well remembered as a man who live to the fullest.

Baloling Bridge is a gateway to the town of Mapandan and an exit to San Jacinto thus served for transfer of goods and mobility for the townspeople of Mapandan and its neighboring towns in the second district of Pangasinan. The bridge is a milestone development considering that it has responded to the clamor of the residents for a permanent bridge, hence, inaccessibility will no longer be a perennial problem during the rainy seasons.

This measure is not without precedent considering the number of places and main streets that have been named after men that have served their community well.
