HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

THIRTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 2187

Introduced by Honorable Samuel M. Dangwa

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Strategically located along the stretch of Baguio-Asin-San Pascual National Road, Barangay Tadiangan, in the Municipality of Tuba, Province of Benguet is a home to hardworking people of various talents and skills which when harnessed can be useful for the community's economic growth. Although, Barangay Tadiangan is primarily agricultural, it is also endowed with rich natural resources that can be tapped for the needed development of the area. Its people are also possessed with high degree of initiative and are known for their hardworking traits.

These resources, however, remain idle and unexploited because of the lack of proper and necessary skills appropriate enough in harnessing them for beneficial use. This void which is urgently felt in the midst of our quest for faster growth and development can be filled by establishing a vocational school in this Barangay where the needed arts and trade can be taught among use of these God-given resources.

Establishing the Tuba Vocational School will benefit not only the community but also the adjoining Barangays on all sides like, Asin, Nangalisan and San Pascual, all in the municipality of Tuba; some Barangays in the Municipality of Tubao like Rizal and part of Barangay Basca in Aringay and the hinterland of Naguilian all in the province of La Union.

Approval of this bill is urgently requested.
