Thirteenth Congress
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 2421

Introduced by Honorable Generoso DC. Tulagan

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Our unwavering commitment to help the poor must be translated in pro-poor framework and action agenda. Considering that the poor and the marginalized are mostly the agricultural sector of our society, we must not limit the extension of support and services due them. Genuine partnership can be concretized through accessible venues in localities where agriculture is the predominant means of livelihood.

The bill seeks to establish venues to accelerate economic advancement in the countryside through agricultural development as end result of the existence of farmers training center in the area. Thus this bill seeks to established 'a farmers training center in the Municipality of Bayambang, Pangasinan to be known as Third District of Pangasinan Farmers Training Center to serve as venue for seminars, training and information bureau to hone the skills of farmers to break free and or at least mitigate their sufferings from poverty.

In view of its importance, the approval of this Bill is earnestly recommended.
