First Regular Congress

HOUSE BILL NO. 2665

Introduced by Rep. ROBERTO C. CAJES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to convert and nationalize the existing extension of the Danao High School in Barangay Magtangtang, Municipality of Danao and be known as the FRANCISCO DAGOHOY MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL.

The school would be renamed such to honor the hero Francisco Dagohoy who successfully staged a revolt against Spain for 85 long years, the longest rebellion in the Philippine history. Dagohoy had made Danao town his base when he launched the guerilla warfare against the Spaniards.

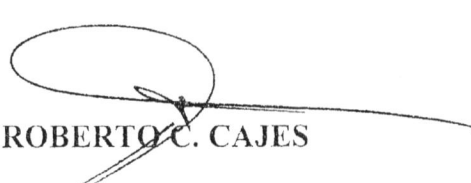

The bill also proposes national government funding for the services of teachers, the improvement of its facilities, and the accommodation of the increasing number of the students.

There is a need to nationalize the said school in order to provide the youth in the countryside an adequate and appropriate education facility that would prepare them to be productive and intelligent citizens of the country.

Education is the foundation of human resource development and the State is called upon to promote and protect the people's intellectual growth. Thus, the government must undertake to make education available to all, especially to the young and underprivileged members of our society in the countryside.

Rural areas like the Barangay of Magtangtang are direly in need of an education facility that would promote the youth's intellectual growth and well-being.

Hence, passage of this bill is earnestly requested.
