THIRTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL No. 2755

Introduced by: HON. ARNULFO P. FUENTEBELLA

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Constitution explicitly mandates the State to establish and maintain a system of free public education in the elementary and high school levels and to take appropriate steps to make education accessible to all. In pursuance of these expressed Constitutional mandates, Congress passed Republic Act No. 6655 otherwise known as the "Free Secondary Education Act of 1988". The government, in effect, assumes the responsibility of ensuring the Filipino youth, who has completed elementary education, to have access to secondary level of education through public high school.

The present financial position of most local government units, including the Municipality of Tinambac, Province of Camarines Sur, has severely affected the maintenance and operation of locally-funded high schools in their respective jurisdictions. In fact, the said municipality has been experiencing great difficulties in shouldering the salaries and wages of the teachers assigned to the Agay-ayan High School, which serves as an extension of the Sagrada Nationalized high School.

The establishment therefore of the Agay-ayan National High School is not only a concrete gesture to the persistent popular clamor as expressed in Resolution No. 04-047 passed by the Sangguniang Bayan of the Municipality of Tinambac, Camarines Sur but will also realize the noble intent of Republic Act No. 6655.

In view of the foregoing reasons, the approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
