THIRTEENTH CONGRESS

HOUSE BILL NO. 3150

Introduced by Honorable EDMUNDO O. REYES, JR.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The 1987 Constitution mandates the Government to support the rights and duty of parents in the rearing of youth for civic efficiency and the development of moral character.

This constitutional provision underscores the right and responsibility of parents for the care and education of their children. It is this rights and responsibility that ushers a vital partnership between the home and the school in molding the children to grow as good citizens, and therefor, must receive all the necessary support and encouragement from the government.

It is the purpose of this bill to achieve maximum results from the participation of parents in activities related to the school by strengthening parents associations which, as a policy, must receive encouragement and support from the government. The task to deliver quality education to the children, as mandated by the Constitution, it is believed, can be better achieved through a strengthened parents association. The end result would certainly redound to the welfare of the children who will eventually contribute immensely to the development and progress of our communities and to growth of the nation.

In the interest of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.

EDMUNDO O. REYES, JR.
