EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to establish a Technical Vocational School in Barangay Tuburan, City of Ligao, province of Albay, to be known as the Ligao Institute of Science and Technology.

The rapid development of science and technology requires that our students be given the necessary tool and education to meet the challenges and opportunities of the job market. Thus, the establishment of this school will provide quality vocational and technical education to the poor but deserving students not only in the Province of Albay but also to its neighboring provinces. It will also provide human resources, through its graduates, to small and medium size local industries in said provinces.

In general, establishing a Technical Vocational School in Barangay Tuburan, City of Ligao, province of Albay, to be known as the Ligao Institute of Science and Technology will contribute to the development of Region V; hence the early passage of this measure is earnestly requested.
