

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Philippines

Thirteenth Congress

First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 3660

---

Introduced by Honorable Mary Ann L. Susano

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to change the name of Elliptical Road in Quezon City into Lourdes Tuason Elliptical Road in respect to and in honoring the Tuason Family who were instrumental in the creation of Quezon City.

The land area that represents Quezon City when it was created was originally owned by the Tuason family. It was in 1938 when President Manuel L. Quezon purchased One Thousand Five Hundred Twenty-nine (1,529) hectares of land from the vast Diliman estate of the Tuason family which then became the first official land area of Quezon City.

Although this bill is not enough in giving Lourdes Tuason and her family the commendation they deserved, it will at least serve to memorialize their contribution in the growth and development of what is Quezon City now which every commuters passing Lourdes Tuason Elliptical road should remember and be proud of.

Approval of this bill is therefore earnestly requested..
