HOUSE BILL NO. 3739

Introduced by the Honorable Benjamin C. Agarao, Jr.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Province of Laguna is blessed naturedly by vast tracts of unperturbed but palatable lands which have remained idle for the past several years. These areas had become grazing lands for cattle farmers who are technologically ill-equipped in terms of developing and harnessing their chosen craft.

This bill seeks to establish a Cattle Fattening Station and Agro-Feeds Experimental Farm in the Municipality of Siniloan, Fourth District of Laguna.

The National Recovery Program that our government has consistently espoused finds appropriate solution if this bill becomes an absolute reality. The poor farmers who had already fallen to some archaic and unconventional methods of breeding their animals will greatly benefit from this endeavor. Reversibly, the government will find sustenance from these farmers if the same had become a worthy project.

Whereas in other areas of the country where cattle fattening is well advanced, in the Fourth District of Laguna, farmers had been overly dependent on what they have learned from their forefathers without in any way considering technological advances.

Approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
