

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Metro Manila

Thirteenth Congress
Second Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 4764

Introduced by Honorable Florencio T. Miraflores

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to expand the authority of the city or municipal civil registrar or the consul general by including the correction of clerical and typographical errors in the date of birth or sex of a person appearing in the civil register without need of a judicial order.

Republic Act No. 9048 was enacted for the purpose of amending Articles 376 and 412 of the Civil Code of the Philippines. The law authorizes the city and municipal civil registrars or consuls-general to change or correct without judicial order, certain clerical or typographical errors in the civil register. The law does not include, however, other entries such as "sex" and "date of birth" where typographical or clerical errors are likewise commonly committed.

A simple "x" on the wrong line or entry causes grave or serious problems on the registrant. For example, an application for marriage license might be denied because the typist marked "x" on a wrong gender. Likewise, a registrant whose date of birth was erroneously entered encounters similar problems particularly in the processing of papers for school enrolment, travel abroad or retirement benefits.

The inaccuracies of entries in the civil register remains a major source of inconvenience and untold miseries suffered by individuals who were not responsible for these errors. Requiring these individuals to go to court for proper remedy exacerbates their sorry plight.

In view of the foregoing, the approval of this bill is earnestly recommended.
