THIRTEENTH CONGRESS
Second Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 4783

Introduced by HONORABLE SUHARTO T. MANGUDADATU

EXPLANATORY NOTE

It is the mandate of the Constitution to bring about a more responsive and participative local government, thus giving more meaning and substance to people power. Upon the clamor of the residents themselves and based on the manageable territory and people, this bill seeks to create Datu Tandugan, as a new barangay in the Municipality of Kalamansig, Province of Sultan Kudarat, separate and independent from its mother barangay.

Inhabited mostly by the indigenous cultural minorities specifically the Tirurays and Manobos, the populace itself had expressed their desire for self-rule and development socially, politically, and economically.

Pursuant to Section 386 of the Local Government Code that "to enhance the delivery of basic services in the indigenous cultural communities, barangays may be created in such community by an Act of Congress".

Likewise, the State recognizes and promotes the rights of indigenous cultural communities including the right to development opportunities as embodied in the Constitution. The creation of a new barangay affirms this constitutional mandate whereby a community belonging to the Tiruray and Manobo tribes will have the right to manage their own affairs as they see fit.

We should also recognize the fact that through the years, they have been the caretakers of their ancestral lands. For this reason, it is only fitting to give them the right to manage and protect it. Considering the benefits of this creation to the people concerned, the approval of this bill is earnestly requested.
