THIRTEENTH CONGRESS

Third Regular Session

House Bill No. 5858

Introduced by: REP. ISIDORO E. REAL, JR.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

After the heady excitement of graduation day, many poor Grade VI pupils in Barangay Lintugop, Aurora, Zamboanga del Sur, and in the barangays surrounding Lintugop, have to face the sad reality that they cannot go to high school. Most of them being children of marginalized farmers, everyday is a battle for survival and the dream to continue their studies withers so soon even before it is allowed to bloom. Going to high school in the Poblacion or in other distant barangays is a venture their parents just cannot afford.

To give the pupils in this area easy access to secondary education, which is their basic right, and to include them among the educated youth who will be the hope of our country, the establishment of a high school in Lintugop is imperative.

Approval of this Bill, establishing the Lintugop National High School, is strongly recommended.
