EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill provides for the construction of the Wright Peanut Processors Association Center in Barangay Buray, Municipality of Paranas, Province of Samar.

Samar is composed of agricultural municipalities where farming is the principal means of livelihood of the people. Most of the residents of Barangay Buray in the Municipality of Paranas depend on the sales of peanuts to local and international tourists who ply the route traversing the said barangay to and from other places not only the Samar province but in Northern Samar as well as Eastern Samar. Buraynons, being predominantly farmers, need a peanut processors center that are necessities in the aforementioned barangay. Through the center, peanut processors will have a place of their own where they can hold meetings and other activities. Upon proper coordination with the Department of Agriculture, speakers and technicians can be invited for demonstrations and instructional purposes and thus, help the peanut processors improve their techniques and methods of processing peanuts that will help them in their business ventures. Through the center, the peanut processors of Paranas, Samar can plan for their future and enhance their collective efforts all aimed at nation building.

Hence, the approval of this bill is sincerely sought.
