HOUSE BILL NO. 109

Introduced by Honorable Neptali M. Gonzales II

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill provides for the granting of good conduct time allowance to prisoners who will participate in literacy skills and development programs while inside the penal institutions amending for the purpose Article 97, Chapter II of the Revised Penal Code.

It is of common knowledge that many prisoners are unschooled or are illiterate. Ignorance is the reason why they usually transgress the law and land in jail.

This bill will give inmates the opportunity to be educated, develop skills and strengthen their moral values while under detention. Most of all, it will reduce their sentence and thus shorten their stay in prison.

Hence, the approval of this bill is highly recommended.
