15TH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 1753

Introduced by REP. SALVADOR H. ESCUDERO III

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippine educational system has been undergoing innovative transformation and restructuring to improve the quality of education and quality of graduates in the elementary, secondary and tertiary levels as means to promote national development and global competitiveness. Present condition indicates that a small percentage of college graduates successfully find appropriate employment perfectly suited for their respective courses. This has resulted to unemployment and over supply of college graduates in white collar jobs and shortages in skilled manpower. Moreover, recent results of professional examinations consistently yielded small percentage of successful examinees. This is further aggravated by the continuous exodus and migration of our professionals seeking employment and high paying jobs in other countries. To address this pressing and urgent predicament, there is a need to institutionalize a mechanism which will check, screen and monitor the flow of secondary graduates to post-secondary learning institutions to promote national development and global competitiveness. In this light, the National Career Assessment Examination (NCAE) will act as an instrument to maintain a viable balance among the number of white collar employees, skilled manpower and entrepreneurs through a provision of career direction to secondary graduates.

The bill shall provide a redirection of skills development program in the tertiary level specifically aimed at harmonizing and matching the supply coming from post-secondary institution with that of the demand of the country's employment market. It shall address the evident need to institutionalize a career direction program for secondary graduates which would assess the individual's potential to; enter a four-year degree program, take technical/vocational course or embark into entrepreneurship. Finally, it shall answer the pressing and apparent need to prepare high school graduates for national development and global competitiveness.

In view of the foregoing reasons, the approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
