EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Constitution, Article II, Section 17 states that:

"Section 17. The State shall give priority to education, science and technology, arts, culture and sports to foster patriotism and nationalism, accelerate social progress, and promote total human liberation and development."

The Constitution, Article II, Section 4, provides that:

"Section 4. It is the policy of the State to promote peace and order, ensure public safety and further strengthen local government capability aimed towards the effective delivery of basic services for the citizenry through the establishment of a highly and competent police force that is national in scope and civilian in character".

The Philippine National Police (PNP) was created under Republic Act No. 6975, entitled: "An Act Establishing the Philippine National Police Under a Reorganized Department of the Interior and Local Government," or otherwise known as, "The PNP Law."

The men and women of the PNP are committed to a vision of a professional, dynamic and highly motivated force working in partnership with a responsive community towards the attainment of a safe place to live, work, invest and do business with. Their mission is to enforce the law, to prevent and control crimes, to maintain peace and order, and to ensure public safety and internal security with the active support of the community.

In order to further encourage and reward them for their selfless service to the community, it is important to increase the benefits of the members of the PNP as well as their families.
