

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

FIFTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 3430

Introduced by Honorable Winston "Winnie" T. Castelo

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The "Open High School System" could be likened, albeit figuratively, to a manna from heaven.

It would tap unrealized need for the benefit of the following stakeholders, namely:

- 1) children or youth in areas of armed conflict
- 2) out-of-school youth
- 3) students living in far-flung or remote areas
- 4) youth offenders detained in correctional institutions
- 5) youth who have to eke out a living while studying
- 6) adults who wish to finish secondary education

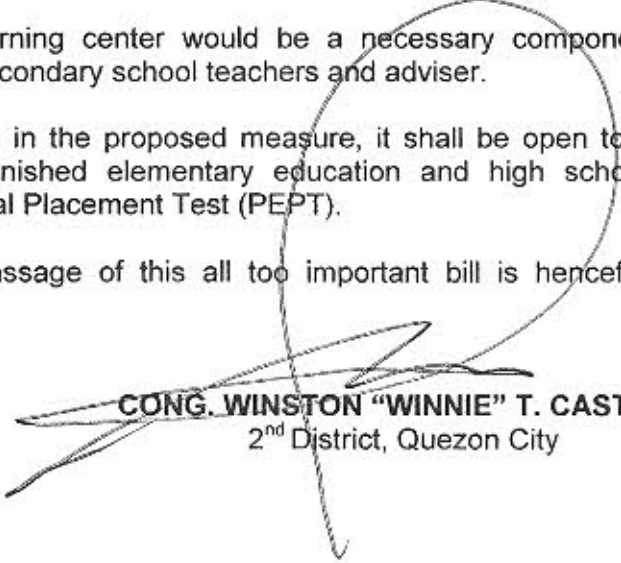

This bill, deliberated upon in both Senate and House of Representatives in the 14th Congress, envisions e-learning as a very viable educational system enabling children, youth, even adults to start, continue, resume and eventually finish their secondary education outside of the conventional classroom setting.

Of course, there are sufficient provisions in the 1987 Constitution supportive of this rather bold, innovative, creative approach to the Philippine educational system.

Distance learning center would be a necessary component to this program staffed by regular secondary school teachers and adviser.

As stipulated in the proposed measure, it shall be open to all youth and even adults who have finished elementary education and high school qualifiers of the Philippine Educational Placement Test (PEPT).

The swift passage of this all too important bill is henceforth, most fervently prayed for.
