

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

FIFTEENTH CONGRESS
FIRST REGULAR SESSION

House Bill No. 320

Introduced by: Hon. Pedro B. Acharon Jr.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill intends to expand the coverage of RA 9064, otherwise known as the "The Sports Benefits and Incentives Act of 2001". As proposed, the amendment will enlarge the coverage of the terms "International Competitions" and "National Athletes" and an increase in the monetary benefits to conform to the concerns of some quarters in the field of sports.

It is worthy to note that RA 9064 is a legislative milestone in terms of giving incentives to our athletes who have brought glory and honor to our country. Regrettably, not all athletes may avail of the grant provided by law, only those athletes who won in an international sports competition sanctioned by the International Olympic Committee fall within the ambit of the provision.

With the prevalent exposure of Filipino athletes in international contests, there is an increasing number of successful conquests that showcased their skills and talents to the world. Our country finds recognition as a consequence in every triumphant stint which these Filipino athletes hurdle. It is thus appropriate for the state to recognize their efforts by extending similar grants such as those extended by RA 9064. As proposed, the term "international competitions" shall incorporate other international sports competition sanctioned by other sports organizations or federations.

Further, it is proposed under this bill to include under the term to expand as well the coverage of term "national athletes". The bill will include athletes with disability who represented the country in international Paralympics competitions. During the 2000 ADONIS Para Games, our country's athletes finished second and third in 22-41-37 gold-silver-bronze finish.

Republic Act No. 7277, otherwise known as the "Magna Carta for Disabled Person" declared as a matter of policy that the State shall develop their skills and potentials to enable them to compete favourably for available opportunities. In line with this policy, this bill seeks to equalize opportunities for differently-abled athletes who win in international competitions through the grant of the same cash and non-monetary benefits and incentives given to regular national athletes.

In view of the foregoing, the prompt approval of this bill is earnestly requested.
