HOUSE BILL NO. 4750

Introduced by HON. CATALINA CABRERA – BAGASINA
Association of Laborers and Employees (ALE) Party-list

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill will institutionalize urban agriculture and vertical farming in the highly-urbanized cities nationwide. Urban agriculture is the production, processing and marketing of food in response to the demand of consumers within a town, city, or metropolis, with the application of intensive production methods, such as the using and reusing urban resources and wastes, to yield a diversity of crops and livestock. This bill shall be known as "The Urban Agriculture Act of 2011".

The urban poor are mostly handicapped in terms of education and job opportunities. The Urban Agriculture Act of 2011 will help them gain the benefits from urban agriculture as it will continue to better livelihood by providing non-market access to food.

The world population will double in 50 years. Studies have shown that new land will be needed to grow enough food for everyone. Urban agriculture and farming will not only clean our environment but it will also avoid climate change. This proposed measure seeks to promote the use of urban agriculture and vertical farming in the country's metropolitan areas to address food security concerns and regenerate ecosystem functions. It is now high time to combat the effects of over population and climate change.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
