AN ACT PROTECTING THE RIGHTS OF INTERNALLY DISPLACED PERSONS, PROVIDING PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS THEREOF AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Be it enacted by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

1 SECTION 1. *Short Title. This Act shall be known as the “ Rights of Internally Displaced
2 Persons Act of 2011”.

3 SEC. 2. *Declaration of Principles and State Policies. Consistent with the principles
4 enshrined in the 1987 Constitution, the standards set by international humanitarian law and human 5 rights laws, international treaties and conventions adhered to by the Philippines, it is also hereby 6 declared a State policy to promote and protect the rights of internally displaced persons in situations 7 of armed conflict, generalized violence, violations of human rights, aggressive implementation of 8 development projects and other man-made disasters.

9 When armed conflict of a non-international character is inevitable, the State shall ensure the 10 promotion and protection of the rights of the citizens who are non-combatants and who shall enjoy 11 in full equality, the same rights and freedoms under international and domestic law as do other 12 persons in the country. These citizens shall not be discriminated against in the enjoyment of any 13 rights and freedoms on the ground that they are internally-displaced.

1 SEC. 3. Definition of Terms. – The following terms, as defined accordingly, shall be used
2 in this Act:

- 3 a) “Internal displacement” refers to the involuntary movement or forced evacuation or 4 expulsion of any person or group of persons who flee or leave their homes or places
5 of habitual residence, without crossing an internationally recognized State border, as 6 a result of or in order to avoid the effects of armed conflict, situations of generalized
7 violence, violations of human rights, land conversion and any other land conflict, 8 aggressive implementation of development projects and other man-made disasters.
- 9 b) “Arbitrary internal displacement” refers to acts of displacement or any other 10 coercive act committed by any person or group/s of persons and directed against the 11 civilian population, which are contrary to law, good morals, public order or public 12 policy, or committed with abuse of authority, oppressive or wanton disregard of the 13 right to life, liberty or property and abode of the residents of an area in which they 14 are lawfully present, and characterized by those situations as defined in Section 6 of 15 this Act.
- 16 c) “Internally Displaced Person” hereinafter described as an IDP, refers to any 17 individual who has suffered harm as a direct result of internal displacement, whether 18 arbitrary or not, as defined herein.
- 19 d) “Order of Battle/ Watchlist” refers to a document or any organizational tool used by 20 the military or law enforcement agencies, that, among others, lists persons or 21 organizations perceived as being hostile to the people and the State.
- 22 e) “Apartheid” refers to inhumane acts committed in the context of an institutionalized 23 regime of systematic oppression and domination by one racial group or groups and 24 committed with the intention of maintaining that regime.
- 25 f) “Ethnic cleansing” refers to the act of rendering an area ethnically homogenous by 26 using force or intimidation to remove from a given area persons of another ethnic or

1 religious group.

2 g) "Tribal/Clan War" refers to any conflict that may arise between members of 3 different tribal groups, indigenous groups or clans, or between and among members
4 of the same tribe, indigenous group or clan.

5 SEC.4. Scope. – This Act shall primarily provide for the protection of rights of IDPs during 6 and after displacement, as well as their resettlement, relocation and re-integration. This Act shall 7 likewise cover arbitrary internal displacement of civilians as a result of or in order to avoid the 8 effects of armed conflict, situations of generalized violence, violations of human rights, aggressive 9 implementation of development projects and other man-made disasters, to the exclusion of internal 10 displacement resulting from natural disasters.

11 SEC. 5. Prevention of Arbitrary Internal Displacement. State authorities, including local 12 government units, and parties to an armed conflict, irrespective of their legal status and applied 13 without any adverse distinction, shall respect and ensure compliance with their obligations under 14 international law, including human rights law and humanitarian law, so as to prevent and avoid 15 conditions that might lead to the arbitrary internal displacement of persons.

16 SEC. 6. Prohibited Acts of Arbitrary Internal Displacement. – The prohibited acts of 17 arbitrary internal displacement shall include those committed:

- 18 a) based on policies of apartheid, "ethnic cleansing" or similar practices aimed at/or 19 resulting in altering the ethnic, religious or racial composition of the affected 20 population;
- 21 b) in situations of armed conflict, unless the security of the civilians is involved;
- 22 c) in cases of large-scale development projects, including land conversion and any 23 other land conflict, which are not justified by compelling and overriding public 24 interest;
- 25 d) in cases of man-made disasters, unless the safety and health of those affected require

1 their evacuation;

2 e) used as a form of collective punishment;

3 f) in cases of tribal/clan wars, unless the security of those civilians not involved in the 4 conflict is endangered; and

5 g) in violation of the rights of IDPs during displacement under Section 9 of this Act.

6 An Order of Battle/Watchlist issued by the military or any law enforcement agency of the 7 government shall not justify arbitrary internal displacement and shall subject the perpetrators to the 8 penalties provided under Section 13 of this Act.

9 SEC. 7. *Protection from Arbitrary Internal Displacement. All authorities, including the 10 local government units (LGUs) concerned, groups and persons, irrespective of their legal status and 11 applied without any adverse distinction, shall protect its citizens against being arbitrarily displaced 12 from their homes or places of habitual residence.

13 Displacement shall not be carried out in a manner that violates the rights to life, liberty, 14 dignity and security of those affected. Any displacement not included in Section 6 of this Act shall 15 not last longer than what is required by the circumstances as determined by the Commission on 16 Human Rights (CHR).

17 In addition, the following safeguards against arbitrary internal displacement shall be 18 observed by all concerned authorities, groups and persons:

19 a) All feasible alternatives shall be explored in order to avoid displacement. Where no 20 alternatives exist, all measures shall be undertaken to minimize displacement and its 21 adverse effects on the population that will be affected;

22 b) If displacement is inevitable, the authorities shall ensure, to the greatest practicable
23 extent, that proper accommodation is effected in satisfactory conditions of safety, 24 nutrition, water and sanitation, health and hygiene, and that members of the same 25 family, especially women and children, are not separated;

- 1 c) Indigenous peoples, minorities, peasants, pastoralists and other groups with special
2 dependency on and attachment to their lands shall be protected from arbitrary 3 internal displacement;
- 4 d) In situations other than during the emergency stages of armed conflict and disaster, 5 the following guarantees shall be complied with:
- 6 1) a specific decision shall be taken by the authority empowered by law to order 7 such measures;
- 8 2) full disclosure of information on the reasons and procedures for the displacement 9 and, when applicable, also on compensation and relocation;
- 10 3) free and informed consent of those persons to be displaced shall be sought;
- 11 4) authorities concerned shall endeavor to involve those affected, particularly 12 women, in the planning and management of their relocation, resettlement and 13 reintegration;
- 14 5) law enforcement measures, when required, shall be carried out by competent 15 legal authorities; and
- 16 6) the right to an effective remedy, including the review of such decisions by 17 appropriate judicial authorities, shall be respected.

18 SEC. 8. *Permanent Prohibition Against Arbitrary Internal Displacement. The 19 prohibition on arbitrary internal displacement and the fundamental safeguards for its prevention 20 shall not be suspended under any circumstance, including political instability, threat of war, state of 21 war or other public emergencies.

22 SEC. 9. *Rights During and After Displacement. –Pursuant to the provisions of the Bill of 23 Rights under Article III of the 1987 Philippine Constitution, the following rights shall be afforded
24 to IDPs during and after their displacement, without discrimination of any kind, such as those based 25 on race, color, sex, language, religion or belief, political or other opinion, national, ethnic or social 26 origin, legal or social status, age, disability, property, birth or on any other similar criteria:

1 A. Provision and Access to Basic Necessities. At the minimum, regardless of the 2 circumstances, and without discrimination, competent authorities shall provide IDPs with 3 and ensure safe access to:

- 4 1. essential and adequate food and nutrition and potable water;
- 5 2. basic shelter and housing;
- 6 3. appropriate clothing; and
- 7 4. essential medical and dental services and sanitation, including psychological and 8 social services, and essential drugs and medicines;

9 B. Protection Against Criminal Offenses and Other Unlawful Acts. 1. It shall be prohibited
10 to commit any of the following acts against IDPs in all circumstances:

- 11 a) Murder;
- 12 b) Hostage-taking;
- 13 c) Summary or arbitrary execution and enforced disappearance, including 14 abduction or unacknowledged detention, threatening or resulting in death; 15 and
- 16 d) Unlawful confinement.

17 2. Attacks or other acts of violence against IDPs who do not or no longer participate in 18 hostilities shall be prohibited in all circumstances, without prejudice to being held liable 19 for any offense committed by them. In particular, IDPs shall be protected against:

- 20 a) direct or indiscriminate attacks or other acts of violence, including the 21 creation of areas wherein attacks on civilians are permitted;
- 22 b) starvation as a method of combat;
- 23 c) their being used to shield military objectives from attack, or to shield, favor 24 or impede the operations of the military, police or any armed group;
- 25 d) attacks against any evacuation center, facility, encampment or other

1 settlements; and

2 e) use of anti-personnel landmines.

3 3. IDPs, whether or not their liberty have been restricted, shall be protected in particular 4 against:

5 a) rape, mutilation, torture, cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or 6 punishment, and other outrages upon personal dignity, such as acts of gender-7 specific violence, forced prostitution and any form of indecent assault;

8 b) slavery or any contemporary form of slavery, such as sale into marriage, 9 sexual exploitation or forced labor of children; and 10 c) acts of violence intended to spread terror among IDPs.

11 Threats and incitement to commit any of the foregoing acts under paragraph B, sub-12 sections 1 and 3 herein shall be prohibited.

13 4. IDPs shall not be interned in or confined in any evacuation center, facility, 14 encampment or other settlements. If in exceptional circumstances such internment or 15 confinement is necessary, it shall not last longer than what is required by the 16 circumstances, as may be determined by the CHR.

17 5. IDPS shall be protected against discriminatory practices of recruitment into the Armed 18 Forces of the Philippines (AFP), law enforcement agencies, or any armed group as a 19 result of their displacement. In particular, any cruel, inhuman or degrading practice that 20 compel compliance or punish non-compliance with recruitment shall be prohibited in all 21 circumstances.

22 C. Freedom of Movement. 1. Every IDP has the right to liberty of movement and freedom to 23 choose a residence. In particular, the IDP has the right to move freely in and out of any 24 evacuation center, encampment or other settlements, subject to the facility's existing rules
25 and regulations;

1 2. IDPs, whether or not they are living in an evacuation center, encampment or other 2 settlements, shall not be discriminated against in the enjoyment of the following rights:

- 3 a) to enjoy freedom of thought, conscience, religion or belief, opinion and 4 expression;
- 5 b) to seek freely opportunities for employment and to participate in economic 6 activities;
- 7 c) to associate freely and participate equally in community affairs;
- 8 d) to vote and participate in governmental and public affairs, including the right to 9 have access to the means necessary to exercise these rights; and
- 10 e) to communicate in a language they understand.

11 3. IDPs have the right to:

- 12 a) seek safety in another part of the country;
- 13 b) leave the country;
- 14 c) seek asylum in another country; and
- 15 d) be protected against forcible return to resettlement in any place where their 16 lives, safety, liberty and/or health would be at risk.

17 D. Recognition, Issuance and Replacement of Documents. The appropriate authorities
18 concerned shall issue to the IDPs all documents necessary for the enjoyment and exercise of 19 their legal rights. In particular, these authorities shall facilitate the issuance of new 20 documents or the replacement of documents lost in the course of displacement, without 21 imposing unreasonable conditions and without discrimination against women and men, who 22 shall have equal rights to obtain and to be issued the same in their own names.

23 E. Family Unity and Missing Persons. 1. Members of internally displaced families who wish
24 to remain together shall be allowed to do so. Families that are separated by displacement 25 and whose personal liberty have been restricted by internment or confinement in any

1 evacuation center, facility, encampment or other settlements, should be reunited 2 immediately, with appropriate measures taken to expedite the reunion, particularly when 3 children are involved;

4 2. The State shall encourage cooperation among international and local humanitarian 5 organizations engaged in the task of family reunification;

6 3. The authorities concerned shall endeavor to establish the fate and whereabouts of IDPs
7 reported missing and cooperate with relevant international organizations engaged in this 8 task. They shall inform the next-of-kin on the progress of the investigation and notify 9 them of any result;

10 4. The authorities concerned shall endeavor to collect and identify the mortal remains of 11 the deceased, prevent their despoliation or mutilation and facilitate the return of the 12 remains to the next-of-kin or dispose of them respectfully; and

13 5. Grave sites of IDPs shall be protected and respected in all circumstances and IDPs 14 shall have the right of access to the grave sites of their deceased relatives.

15 F. Health and Education. 1. Certain IDPs, such as children, especially unaccompanied 16 minors, expectant mothers, mothers with young children, female heads of households, 17 persons with disabilities and elderly persons, shall be entitled to protection and assistance
18 required by their condition and to treatment which takes into account their special needs;

19 2. All wounded and sick IDPs as well as those with disabilities shall receive to the fullest 20 extent practicable and with the least possible delay, the medical care and attention they 21 require, without distinction on any ground other than the medical ones. When necessary, 22 IDPs shall have access to psychological and social services;

1 3. Special attention should be paid to the health needs of women, including access to 2 female health care, providers and services, as well as appropriate counselling for victims
3 of sexual and other abuses;

4 4. Special attention should also be given to the prevention of contagious and infectious
5 diseases, including AIDS, among IDPs; and

6 5. The authorities concerned shall ensure that IDPS, in particular, displaced children,
7 receive education that shall be free and compulsory at the primary level. Special efforts 8 should be made to ensure the full and equal participation of women and girls in 9 educational program, and that respect for their cultural identity, language and religion, 10 educational and training facilities shall be made available to them as soon as 11 circumstances permit.

12 G. Property and Possessions. The property and possessions of IDPs shall, in all 13 circumstances, be protected against the following acts:

- 14 1. pillage;
- 15 2. direct or indiscriminate attacks or other acts of violence;
- 16 3. being used to shield military operations or objectives;
- 17 4. being made the object of reprisal;
- 18 5. being destroyed or appropriated as a form of collective punishment; and
- 19 6. destruction, arbitrary and illegal appropriation, occupation or use.

20 The rights and obligations herein shall not be interpreted as restricting, modifying or 21 impairing the provisions of any international human rights or international humanitarian law or 22 rights granted to persons under domestic law.

23 SEC. 10. *Immediate Relief and Humanitarian Assistance to IDPs. The primary duty and 24 responsibility for providing humanitarian assistance to IDPs lie with national authorities. As such,

1 the military and law enforcement agencies conducting operations, Department of Social Welfare
2 and Development (DSWD), Department of Health (DOH), local government hospitals, LGUs
3 concerned and other appropriate government agencies shall provide immediate relief and 4 humanitarian assistance to IDPs, families and communities.

5 Humanitarian assistance to IDPs shall not be diverted, for any political or military reasons.
6 All authorities concerned shall grant and facilitate the free passage of humanitarian assistance to the 7 internally displaced and ensure rapid, safe and unimpeded access of persons engaged in giving such 8 assistance, their transport and supplies to the displaced communities. They shall not be the objects 9 of attack or other acts of violence.

10 All concerned authorities shall assist the IDPs in the recovery of their property and 11 possessions, and shall provide or assist these persons in obtaining appropriate compensation or 12 other forms of just reparation.

13 SEC.11. *Return, Resettlement and Re-Integration. Competent authorities, such as the 14 military and law enforcement agencies conducting operations, DSWD, DOH, local government 15 hospitals, LGUs concerned and other appropriate government agencies, have the primary duty and 16 responsibility to establish conditions and provide means for IDPs to return voluntarily, in safety and 17 with dignity, to their homes or places of habitual residence, or to resettle voluntarily.

18 Said authorities shall likewise ensure the full participation of IDPs in the planning and 19 management of their return, resettlement and re-integration.

20 SEC.12. *Mechanisms for International Humanitarian Assistance. International 21 humanitarian organizations, their local counterparts and other appropriate actors shall have the right
22 to offer their services in support of the internally displaced. These acts shall be considered in good 23 faith and not as unfriendly acts or interference in the internal affairs of the Government. Consent thereto shall not be arbitrarily withheld, particularly when authorities concerned are unable or unwilling to provide the required humanitarian assistance.

When providing assistance to IDPs, said organizations shall respect relevant domestic laws, international standards and codes of conduct. They shall give due regard to the protection of the needs and human rights of the IDPs.

The importation and donation of food, clothing, medicine and equipment necessary for relief and assistance of IDPs are hereby authorized in accordance with Section 105 of the Tariff and Customs Code of the Philippines, as amended, and the prevailing provisions of the General Appropriations Act as regards national internal revenue taxes and import duties of national and local government agencies.

SEC. 13. Penalties. a) The penalty of reclusion temporal in its minimum to medium period shall be imposed upon the following persons:

- 1) Those who directly commit the act of arbitrary internal displacement;
- 2) Those who directly force, instigate, encourage, induce or incite others to commit the act of arbitrary internal displacement;
- 3) Those who cooperate in the act of arbitrary internal displacement by committing another act, without which the act of arbitrary internal displacement would not have been carried out;
- 4) Those commanding officers, as well as all elements of the military, police and/or other law enforcement agencies, who actually and/or directly participate in the act of arbitrary internal displacement;
- 5) Those who cooperated in the execution of the act of arbitrary internal displacement by previous or simultaneous acts; and
- 6) Those commanding officers of the military, police or other law enforcement agencies or other authorities, for acts of arbitrary internal displacement

1 committed by forces under their effective command and control, or effective
2 authority and control as the case may be, as a result of their failure to exercise
3 proper control over such forces, where the commanding officers or authorities 4 knew or, owing to the circumstances at the time, should have known that the 5 forces were committing or about to commit such crimes, and failed to take all 6 necessary and reasonable means within their power to prevent or repress their 7 commission, or to submit the matter to the competent authorities for 8 investigation and prosecution.

9 b) The penalty of prision mayor in its minimum period shall be imposed upon those who 10 attempt to commit the offense of arbitrary internal displacement.

11 c) The penalty of prision mayor in its minimum period shall be imposed upon the persons 12 who, having knowledge of the act of arbitrary internal displacement and without having 13 participated therein, either as principals or accomplices, took part subsequent to its 14 commission by any of the following acts:

15 1) By themselves profiting from or assisting the offender to profit from the effects
16 of the act of arbitrary internal displacement;

17 2) By concealing the act of arbitrary internal displacement and/or destroying the 18 effects or instruments thereof, in order to prevent its discovery; and

19 3) By harboring, concealing or assisting in the escape of the principal/s in the act of 20 arbitrary internal displacement, provided the accessory acts are done with the 21 abuse of the official's public functions.

22 d) The courts shall impose the corresponding accessory penalties under the Revised Penal 23 Code, especially where the offender is a public officer.

1 Sec. 14. *Applicability of the Revised Penal Code and Special Penal Laws. The provisions
2 of the Revised Penal Code and other relevant special penal laws, insofar as they are applicable,
3 shall be suppletory to this Act.

4 SEC.15. *Jurisdiction of the Courts. The proper and competent civilian courts shall have 5 jurisdiction over the offense of arbitrary internal displacement as defined and penalized in this Act.

6 SEC.16. *Liability of Concerned Law Enforcement Agencies. Where the operations
7 conducted by the military, police and other law enforcement agencies cause damage to IDPs, they 8 shall provide jointly and severally the necessary financial assistance for the return, resettlement or 9 re-integration of IDPs.

10 SEC.17. *Compensation. The CHR shall determine the damages inflicted against IDPs and 11 direct the parties and agencies responsible for arbitrary internal displacement to award monetary 12 compensation under the following circumstances:

- 13 a) Where death of an individual victim occurs, the amount of Fifty Thousand Pesos
14 (Php50, 000.00) shall be granted to the legal heirs of the victim as a death benefit;
15 b) Where physical, emotional and/or psychological injury is caused to an individual 16 victim, actual and compensatory damages, including moral, nominal, exemplary and 17 temperate damages resulting from such injury, shall be paid to the victim; and 18 c) Where loss of or damage to property of an individual victim occurs, the amount 19 corresponding to the fair market value of the property lost or destroyed or the amount 20 mutually agreed upon by the parties involved, whichever is higher, shall be paid to the 21 victim.

22 SEC. 18. *Role of the CHR. The CHR shall be designated as the institutional focal point for 23 IDPs. As such, the CHR shall have the following additional functions:

- 24 a) To investigate, on its own or on complaint by any party, all forms of human rights violations against IDPs involving civil and political rights, in accordance with Section 18(1) of Article XIII of the 1987 Constitution;

- b) To monitor conditions of IDPs to ensure that their rights are respected and protected in all phases of internal displacement;
- c) To conduct inquiries, document violations of human rights, assist IDPs in seeking redress of grievances and work to ensure an effective response by the concerned authorities;
- d) To determine the damages incurred against IDPs and facilitate award of compensation for such victims by directing the parties and agencies responsible for the violations to grant the same;
- e) To cite any person in contempt for violations of the orders issued by them in accordance with the Rules of Court;
- f) To follow up on early warning and ensure effective measures to protect the civilian population against arbitrary internal displacement;
- g) To advise the government on the rights of IDPs, formulate sound national policy and legislation and create an inter-agency coordinating body whenever necessary, to effectively address situations of internal displacement;
- h) To undertake educational activities and training programs for State authorities, including the AFP;
- i) To hold public information drives on the protection and rights of IDPs; and
- j) To carry out such other acts that may be necessary to fully implement the purposes of this Act.

✓ SEC.19. Appropriations. The amount necessary for the initial implementation of this Act shall be charged against the current year's appropriations of the CHR, the DSWD, the Department of National Defense (DND) and the Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG).

1 Thereafter, such sums as may be necessary for the continued implementation of this Act shall be 2 included in the General Appropriations Act.

3 SEC.20. *Joint Congressional Oversight Committee. A Joint Congressional Oversight
4 Committee is hereby created, composed of the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Justice and 5 Human Rights and seven (7) other Senators designated by the Senate President, and the Chairman
6 of the House Committee on Human Rights and seven (7) other Members of the House of 7 Representatives, designated by the Speaker of the House of Representatives: Provided, That of the 8 seven (7) Members to be designated by each House of Congress, four (4) should represent the 9 Majority and three (3) from the Minority.

10 The Joint Congressional Oversight Committee shall also have the power to inquire into,
11 summon and investigate the Orders of Battle as defined under this Act, as well as the legal and 12 factual justifications for the inclusion of specific persons and groups in said Orders of Battle. In 13 this regard, the Joint Congressional Oversight Committee may issue mandatory process directing 14 the transmission of all such documents relevant and necessary for the Committee to determine the 15 validity of the inclusion of specific persons or groups in the Orders of Battle. For this purpose, the 16 highest ranking officers or heads of offices shall be charged with testifying before the Joint 17 Congressional Oversight Committee in relation to any inquiries on the Orders of Battle.

18 The invocation of national security as a defense may not prevent the Joint Congressional 19 Oversight Committee from inquiring into the factual and/or legal bases for the existence of an 20 Order of Battle or the inclusion of specific persons or groups in said Orders of Battle. Should there
21 be a need to inquire into the factual basis for the invocation of national security, the Committee
22 shall convene in an executive session and hear the officials invoking it. Should the basis not be 23 satisfactory to the Committee, the public hearing/s will continue and appropriate recommendations
24 shall thereafter be made by the Committee.

1 The Joint Congressional Oversight Committee shall be in existence for a period of five (5)
2 years and its secretariat shall come from the existing secretariat personnel of the Committee of the 3 Senate and House of Representatives comprising the oversight committee. Thereafter, its oversight
4 functions shall be exercised by the Senate Committee on Justice and Human Rights and the House
5 Committee on Human Rights, acting separately.

6 SEC.21. *Implementing Rules and Regulations. The CHR shall issue the necessary rules
7 and regulations to implement the provisions of this Act within sixty (60) days from its effectivity.

8 In the formulation of the rules and regulations, the CHR shall take the lead and coordinate 9 with DSWD, DND, DILG, DENR, DOH, National Commission on Indigenous Peoples (NCIP), 10 Presidential Commission on Urban Poor (PCUP), Housing and Urban Development Coordinating 11 Council (HUDCC), National Housing Authority (NHA) and consult with local government units
