HOUSE BILL NO. 5762

Introduced by: Rep. Ma. Victoria R. Sy-Alvarado

EXPLANATORY NOTE

As the first Republic in Asia, our country must be proud of our strong democratic and republican ideals as a nation. It was 12 June 1898 when General Emilio Aguinaldo declared the Philippines free from the yoke of foreign subjugation. The upheaval of nationalistic fervor leading to our independence was followed with cool and calm thought to make the gains for Philippine democracy and republicanism more lasting and permanent through the enactment of the first organic law for the Philippine Republic.

The significance of 23 January 1899 is that First Philippine Republic came into being as the sovereign choice of the people. It is a conscious choice to reject dictatorial and revolutionary government and establish for all and future Filipino generations the groundwork for democracy.

It is therefore of much import that we need to commemorate 23 January every year. As the beginning of Filipino democracy and self-government, indigenously concluded, magnifies the political maturity and readiness of our forefathers at the turn of that century.

Our beliefs and aspirations as a nation, united in pursuit for life, liberty and enjoyment of the benefits of our democracy, is encapsulated by our rich and noble history. I hope that we can give due recognition with this great feat and achievement of our forefathers in commemorating 23 January as a national holiday.

For this reason, the adoption of this measure is most sought for.
