As such, the Founding Anniversary of the political subdivision falls every 18th of the month of June annually. This momentous event is being commemorated as part of upholding the colorful history of the municipality. The occasion also provides a perfect opportunity for the residents and the town officials to participate in solidarity as they celebrate their rich heritage while united by common aspirations.

This proposal seeks to declare June 18 of every year as a special non-working day in the Municipality of New Bataan, Compostela Valley Province in order to give its citizens the chance to organize and stage appropriate ceremonies in honor of their foundation day.

Approval of the bill is respectfully sought.
