

REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

SIXTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 24

Introduced by MAGDALO Party List Representatives Francisco Ashley L. Acedillo
and Gary C. Alejano

EXPLANATORY NOTE

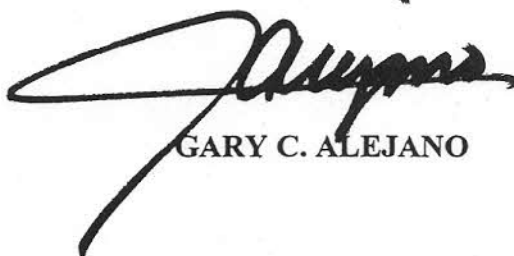

The need for sound expenditure management in the bureaucracy has become more important through the years as government resources have become limited and the needs of society have become almost inexhaustible.

The present set-up of the government made it a significant contributor to the tremendous waste of resources in the Philippine economy. By focusing the government's limited resources on the provision of basic services, the government would effectively reduce poverty and possibly bring about the economic resurgence of the Philippine economy. However, massive trimming down of the bureaucracy is needed to do away with the unnecessary and redundant appendages of the government.

This bill seeks to create the Government Reorganization Commission to undertake studies and propose measures to abolish, merge, integrate, transfer, regroup, or restructure departments, bureaus, offices, government-owned and controlled corporations and other agencies of the Executive Branch in order to eliminate overlapping and/or fragmentation functions of programs and activities.

In view of the foregoing, immediate approval of this measure is earnestly sought.

FRANCISCO ASHLEY L. ACEDILLO

13
14 SEC. 4. *Mandate. - The Commission shall pursue a survey of the government
15 bureaucracy and draft a plan of reorganization of all entities and offices of the Executive
16 branch of government. These shall include all departments and their respective attached
17 agencies, bureaus, offices, commissions, boards, councils, authorities, including 18 government-owned and controlled corporations, state universities and colleges, and all
19 other instrumentalities of the Executive branch.

20
21 SEC. 5. *Powers and Functions. - Pursuant to Section 2 of this Act, and in order
22 to ensure the successful implementation of the reorganization of the Executive branch, 23 the Commission is hereby authorized to:

- 24 1. formulate and administer the necessary guidelines, rules, and procedures to 25 implement and ensure adherence to this Act;
- 26 2. draft a plan to abolish, merge, integrate, transfer, and regroup, or restructure
27 departments, bureaus, offices, government-owned and controlled corporations,
28 and other agencies of the Executive branch only for the purpose of eliminating 29 overlapping and fragmented functions, programs and activities; effects the 30 distribution and transfer to appropriations, assets, liabilities, equipment,
31 records, other properties, transactions, positions, and personnel, all the time 32 giving due regard to pertinent laws and rules and regulations, and the right to 33 security of tenure of civil service officers and employees;
- 34 3. adopt a human resource development strategy, and a government staffing and 35 remuneration policy to include a rewards and incentives scheme that will

- 1 establish equity, promote morale, productivity, innovativeness,
2 professionalism, and creativity, and attract and retain the best and the brightest
3 within the civil service; and
4 4. adopt and enforce the necessary guidelines, rules and regulations, and processes
5 to fully implement the reorganization herein, provided.

7 SEC. 6. Principles and Parameters. - The reorganization of the Executive branch
8 herein authorized shall be carried out according to the following principles and 9 guidelines:

- 10 1.) Government's role and the determination of the scope, level, and prioritization
11 of its activities shall be in accordance with its Constitutional mandate, 12 political and socioeconomic objectives, and available resources, to be guided 13 by the following policies:

- 14 a.) Government shall prioritize the strengthening its fundamental 15 functions, among which are:

- 16 i.) effective macro-economic management, including the 17 formulation and implementation of socioeconomic, fiscal,
18 and monetary policies;
19 ii.) the maintenance of peace and order, and national political 20 security;
21 iii.) the conservation of natural resources and ensuring their 22 productive utilization and development for the national 23 welfare;
24 iv.) the maintenance of an effective and reliable system of 25 administering justice, lawmaking, and law enforcement;
26 v.) providing quality basic and secondary education, especially 27 to the poor and disadvantaged population;
28 vi.) providing adequate and appropriate infrastructure;
29 vii.) promoting economic and political diplomacy to achieve
30 sound and mutually productive economic and political 31 relations with other nations and international communities;
32 viii.) the promotion of total human development; and 33 ix.) disaster mitigation and the effective management of state
34 emergencies and calamities.

- 1 b.) Government's role shall be to steer and mobilize the instruments that 2 contribute to achieving sectoral objectives. To this end, Government
3 shall focus its sectoral functions on:
- 4 i.) policy setting, monitoring, and assessment;
5 ii.) promotion and advocacy;
6 iii.) providing information and linkages or access to markets;
7 iv.) providing assistance and incentives;
8 v.) enforcement of the appropriate rules and regulations; and,
9 vi.) providing safety nets for adversely affected sectors of the 10 population.
- 11 c.) To the extent possible, government shall limit direct provision and 12 production of public goods and encourage more private sector
13 participation.
- 14 2.) The National Government shall assist, supervise, and monitor local 15 government units to complement the greater autonomy granted to them. The 16 declination of responsibilities between the National Government and local 17 government units in the provisions and production of public goods shall be 18 clearly defined and agreed upon.
- 19 3.) The National Government shall adopt a structural framework that will define 20 the vertical as well as horizontal compartmentalization of the Executive 21 Branch, including the basic structural and functional configuration of 22 departments and agencies. It shall likewise adopt a typology of government 23 offices which shall serve to determine the proper organizational 24 configurations and groupings of these offices.
- 25 4.) The Executive Branch shall streamline its systems and procedures to facilitate 26 and improve the relevance and quality of front-line services, and improve 27 policy formulation, planning and performance, and evaluation and assessment.
28 These systems and procedures shall be designed within the context of 29 decentralizing the decision-making authority within the Executive Branch and 30 its departments, agencies, bureaus, offices and other instrumentalities.

31

32 SEC. 7. *Submission of Report to the President and Congress. – The 33 Commission shall submit the report of its study and reorganization plan, to the President.
34 If the President finds the report or plan satisfactory, the same shall be submitted to both

1 Houses of Congress. The organizational plan shall be effective upon the approval of 2 Congress through a concurrent resolution.

4 Sec. 8. *Re-Tooling, Re-Training, and Re-Development Program. – The
5 Government shall adopt and implement a re-tooling, re-training, and re-deployment
6 program for personnel who might be displaced as a result of the reorganization of 7 departments, agencies, bureaus, offices, and other instrumentalities of the Executive
8 Branch. This program shall include the formulation of technical and objective criteria for 9 the identification of redundant positions and the consequent incumbents therein, the 10 establishment and operation of a government manpower pool, and the re-tooling, re-
11 training, and subsequent re-deployment of personnel to appropriate non-redundant
12 positions in the newly reorganized agencies.

13 All personnel whose positions have been declared redundant shall be 14 consequently be deployed to the government pool, which shall be established according 15 to the following guidelines:

- 16 1.) All redundant personnel shall continue to receive their basic salaries
17 for one (1) year from the day their operations are officially declared 18 redundant;
- 19 2.) All allowances, financial and non-financial benefits, and other 20 compensation received by the incumbents prior to their positions being 21 declared redundant shall be terminated upon such declaration;
- 22 3.) If the redundant personnel shall choose to immediately leave the 23 government service, or before the expiration of the one (1) year period 24 provided for, he shall be entitled to receive in cash his basic salary for 25 the remaining period, in addition to any separation pay and other
26 benefits due pursuant to Section 9 of Republic Act No. 6656;
- 27 4.) Redundant personnel who are eligible for retirement under existing 28 laws shall likewise be entitled to encash the basic salary for the 29 remaining period, should they choose to retire before the end of the 30 one (1) year period provided for; and,
- 31 5.) Residence in the manpower pool shall not be considered nor credited 32 as service for purposes of computing retirement and separation
33 benefits.

1 Sec. 9. *The Judiciary and Constitutional Offices. The Judiciary and 2 Constitutional offices may likewise pursue a survey and reorganization of its ranks in 3 accordance with the principles, guidelines, standards, and time frame prescribed in this
4 Act. They may coordinate their respective reorganization efforts with the Executive
5 branch for better coordination and in the interest of public service.

7 Sec. 10. *Repealing Clause. – All laws, decrees, orders, rules and regulations and 8 other issuances inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed or 9 amended accordingly.

10
11 Sec. 11. *Separability Clause. – Should any section or provision of this Act be 12 declared unconstitutional or invalid, other sections or provisions not so affected shall 13 continue to be full force and effect.

14
15 Sec. 12. *Effectivity Clause. – This Act shall take effect fifteen (15) days after its 16 publication in the Official Gazette and in at least two (2) newspapers of general
17 circulation.
