HOUSE BILL NO. 382

Introduced by CHRISTOPHER S. CO and RODEL M. BATOCABE

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The passage of this bill seeks to amend the Party-List System Act by providing for clear procedures, rules, and timeline for disqualification, and removal or cancellation of registration. It shall contribute to the furtherance of full, free and open party system and the continued promotion of marginalized and underrepresented sectors, organizations and parties.

The objective of the Partylist System Act is to promote proportional representation in the election of representatives to the House of Representatives through a party-list system of registered national, regional and sectoral parties or organizations or coalitions. Through the Act, the State attains to develop and guarantee a full, free and open party system in order to attain the broadest possible representation of party, sectoral or group interests in the House of Representatives by enhancing their chances to compete for and win seats in the legislature.

Petitions for cancellation of registration of partylist groups and/or disqualification of nominees have been filed before the COMELEC against winning partylist groups which has caused deferment of their proclamation. Having this gap in the law does not enhance marginalized groups' chances of being represented in the legislature. Instead, it has invited harassment suits taken advantage of by anyone or defeated party-list groups against the winning groups whose victory was hard-earned through sincerity, effective campaign strategy, and better program of government.

There is a need to correct the statute so as to maximize its objectives and ensure that the voice and choice of the people are respected.

The bill was filed in the 15th Congress and was substituted by another bill, but for lack of time, its progress was halted at the committee level. In light of all these circumstances, the swift passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
