Sixteenth Congress

HOUSE BILL NO. 776

Introduced by Honorable Jose Carlos L. Cari

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to authorize local government units and public officials to engage the services of special or private counsels to represent them before courts of law in criminal, civil, and special proceeding cases. Under Section 481 of Republic Act No. 7160, otherwise known as the Local Government Code, it is only the Legal Officer who shall represent the local government unit in all civil actions and special proceedings wherein the local government unit or any official thereof, in his official capacity, is a party. It has been observed, however, that the legal officer, due to the volume of work involved in other duties, could not attend the cases or would give small attention to its prosecution or defense. Moreover, local government units and its officers, who want to avail of the services of competent counsel, could not do so due to the prohibitions under the law.

With the enactment of this bill, local government units and public officials can avail the services of competent and available counsel of their choice. The interests of the local government is likewise protected considering that the legal officer would still represent the local government or the official in collaboration with the chosen private counsel, and the compensation of the latter shall not be taken from public funds but is for the account of the concerned public official. Thus, the local government unit and the concerned public officer are assured of adequate legal protection and representation in courts of law.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
