

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

SIXTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 1042

Introduced by HONORABLE FERDINAND MARTIN G. ROMUALDEZ

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to name the diversion road in Tacloban City as Gov. Benjamin "Kokoy" T. Romualdez Diversion Road.

Benjamin "Kokoy" T. Romualdez was a diplomat, local government executive, educator and a public servant. He passed away on February 21, 2012 and left shining monuments both from his passions for excellence and his vision for the future. Among his impressive, highly successful projects were the setting up of educational, medical and health institutions, energy and industrial plants, vital infrastructure and tourism projects.

He took the initiative for the construction and completion of the diversion road when he was a Governor of Leyte. For his matchless legacies and the tremendous growth of Leyte, it is but fitting that he be credited and memorialize his name on the diversion road he caused to build.

In view of the foregoing, approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
