House Bill No. 1172

Introduced by Honorable JOSEPHINE "Jaye" VERONIQUE R. LACSON - NOEL

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The State is mandated by the Constitution to give priority to education and protect and promote the right of all citizens to quality education at all levels.

This bill aims to give everyone, especially the children the chance to develop their potential. By providing accessible city libraries, the simplified form of education is afforded as well as to the indigents. One of the tenets of the establishment of city libraries is the development and maintenance of regular reading habits of students and also the professionals. Since education is an unending journey, then the state shall be the forerunner advocate.

This bill likewise envisioned the creation of city libraries to expand the potential of every child to the limit and through this, devotion to education, contribute to national development and the progress of humanity.

Thus, immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
