

REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Metro Manila

SIXTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 1181

Introduced by Kabataan Party-list Representative Terry L. Ridon

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Philippine Constitution provides that it is the duty of the State to inculcate in the youth patriotism and nationalism. It also mandates all educational institutions to "inculcate patriotism and nationalism, foster love of humanity, respect for human rights, appreciation of the role of national heroes in the historical development of the country, teach rights and duties of citizenship, strengthen ethical and spiritual values, develop moral character and personal discipline, encourage critical and creative thinking, broaden scientific and technological knowledge, and promote vocational efficiency."

Andres Bonifacio is considered a national hero alongside with Jose Rizal. He was a Filipino nationalist and revolutionary, and has been often referred to as the father of the Philippine Revolution. He was one of the founders, and later the supreme leader of the Kataas-taasang Kagalang-galangang Katipunan ng mga Anak ng Bayan or Katipunan, a movement which sought the independence of the Philippines from Spanish colonial rule through armed revolution.

On November 30, 2013, we celebrate the 150th birth anniversary of Andres Bonifacio. To honor him we re-refile the bill, which aims to reintroduce the life, works and ideals of Andres Bonifacio to the youth through secondary and tertiary education curricula. Introducing a course on his life in high school and college will strengthen the values of nationalism and patriotism. Lessons on national independence, collective action, civic consciousness and patriotism will be inculcated among the students. These lessons will shape the character needed for personal, community and national development.

In light of the foregoing, the approval of the bill is sought.

HON. TERRY L. RIDON
