First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 1316

Introduced by REP. EVELINA G. ESCUDERO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Republic Act 8972 otherwise known as the Solo Parents Welfare Act of 2000, recognizes the legal concept of Family from the traditional definition to that of the present which contemplates a family constituted by a single individual.

It amends Republic Act 8972 otherwise known as the Solo Parents Welfare Act of 2000 by providing additional support and benefits to solo parents, such as but not limited to discounts from purchases of baby's milk, food and food supplements, clothing and medical supplies. It also provides basic personal exemption from individual income tax.

This bill is being filed not only to lessen the burden of solo parenting but to ensure as well that their children are given the opportunity for a better future.

This proposal may have its effects on businesses, employment and other economic activities, nonetheless, it is still worthy of submission for evaluation and deliberation as all stakeholders may be able to strike a balance between profitability and social responsibility.

In view of the foregoing, this bill is submitted.
