

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

SIXTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 1670

Introduced by Honorable Erico Aristotle C. Aumentado

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This measure seeks to construct a road to connect the barangay in Jao island, the second biggest island in the 2nd District of Bohol next to Pres. Garcia town.

Jao island is rich with silica sand, white beautiful beachehes which are now being developed for tourism by the private sector, and is the No. 1 producer of Buntal hats and other cottage industries in the district. It is also the center of seaweeds culture and production for carageenan, and most recently, for bio-ethanol by-products. In fact, the seawaters of Jao island is being developed by Algahol Philippines Company, Ltd., a registered corporation with the Board of Investments (BOI) having US$100,000 capitalization.

The island needs a road network to facilitate travel between barangay Pinamgo of Bien Unido, and barangay Suba and Busalian of Talibon, Bohol.

The road is imperative in the island especially, health commerce and other services for the people.

Wherefore, approval of this bill is earnestly requested.
