

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City

16th CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 1732

Introduced by REP. EVELINA G. ESCUDERO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

It is a declared policy of the State to promote self-employment as a primary tool for poverty alleviation; to recognize and protect the rights of self-employed workers and the organizations that they may form under existing law; to ensure their fair treatment and humane conditions of work, including the basic right to a decent living wage; and to respect the principle of subsidiarity, promote self-reliance and the spirit of enterprise. The State shall further promote their right to self-organization including but not limited to craft unions, guilds, workers cooperatives, and other forms of group entrepreneurship.

As such, self-employed workers are entitled to occupational continuity, decent living wage, and basic social benefits. These basic rights can be enhanced and strengthened through legitimate organizations duly organized under existing laws which are dedicated to protecting their rights and interests.

Thus, urgent passage of this bill is sought.

EVELINA G. ESCUDERO

Republic of the Philippines

16th CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 1732

Introduced by REP. EVELINA G. ESCUDERO

AN ACT TO FURTHER STRENGTHEN THE STANDARD OF PROTECTION AND ENHANCEMENT OF THE WELFARE OF SELF-EMPLOYED WORKERS AND CRAFTSMEN AND THE PROMOTION OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP THEREBY
AMENDING FOR THIS PURPOSE, SECTION 8 OF REPUBLIC ACT 8282
OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT OF 1997

Be it enacted by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

1 SECTION 1. Short Title. - This Act shall be known as the "Self-Employed
2 Workers Protection and Enhancement Act".

3 SECTION 2. Declaration of Policy. - The State shall promote self-employment
4 as a primary tool for poverty alleviation. The State shall recognized and protect the 5 rights of self-employed workers and the organizations that they may form under 6 existing law. The State shall ensure their fair treatment and humane conditions of work,
7 including the basic right to a decent living wage. The State shall respect the principle of 8 subsidiarity, promote self-reliance and the spirit of enterprise. The State shall further 9 promote their right to self-organization including but not limited to craft unions, guilds,
10 workers cooperatives, and other forms of group entrepreneurship.

11 SECTION 3. Guiding Principles. - Self-employed workers are entitled to 12 occupational continuity, decent living wage, and basic social benefits. These basic rights
13 can be enhanced and strengthened through legitimate organizations duly organized
14 under existing laws which are dedicated to protecting their rights and interests.

15 SECTION 4. Definition of Terms -

16 As used in this Act, the following terms shall be defined as:

- 17 a. Craft Union - refers to a labor union with membership limited to workers of the 18 same craft.
19 b. Entrepreneurship - refers to the self-organization and management of a business
20 or enterprise by an individual
21 c. Group Entrepreneurship - refers to the association of different entrepreneurial 22 organizations of common interests.

- 1 d. Guild - refers to an association of people with similar interests or pursuits.
- 2 e. Self-employed - refers to a person who has his own occupational capacity put to
- 3 productive use by applying his own capital raised by himself or together with
- 4 other self-employed persons pursuing related occupational and entrepreneurial
- 5 interest. A self-employed individual earns from his labor as well as from his own
- 6 capital. He may be contingent, non-regular, or an overseas worker.
- 7 f. Workers cooperative - refers to a cooperative owned and controlled by the
- 8 workers themselves. It is organized by workers including self-employed, who
- 9 are at the same time the members and owners of the enterprise. As understood
- 10 herein, the term ownership shall mean actual contribution to the share capital of
- 11 the cooperative up to the maximum allowed by the law and the bylaws. All share
- 12 capital shall be entitled to interest as may be declared from time to time. The
- 13 term control shall mean the exercise of right to vote. As mandated by law, each
- 14 regular member shall only have one vote regardless of the number of shares
- 15 actually held. Its principal purpose is to provide jobs and business opportunities
- 16 to its members and manage it in accordance with cooperative principles.

17 SECTION 5. Contractual Relations - Contracts with self-employed workers are 18 governed primarily by the civil and commercial laws of the Philippines. Therefore, the 19 provisions under Book III of Presidential Decree No. 442, as amended, otherwise known
20 as the Labor Code of the Philippines, shall not be applicable to self-employed workers
21 who have the right to determine the terms and conditions of their own engagements.

22 Notwithstanding the foregoing, agricultural, industrial, commercial, and service 23 sectors engaging self-employed workers shall ensure that the terms and conditions of 24 their service should be above or comparable to the benefits provided in their respective 25 sectors, as mandated by all social legislations.

26 SECTION 6. Training - Training and certification by Technical Education and 27 Skills Development Authority (TESDA) shall be accessible to self-employed workers in 28 order to continuously enhance and upgrade the entrepreneurial and occupational 29 capacity of self-employed individuals. For this purpose, TESDA may enter into 30 agreements with various associations of self-employed workers to effect this policy.

31 SECTION 7. Social Security - All government agencies mandated to render 32 services and extend social security are hereby mandated to ensure that all self-
33 employed workers as defined under this Act are covered by a social security program
34 and shall be allowed to enroll as members of the Social Security System (SSS) under 35 Article 9-A of Republic Act 8282, otherwise known as the Social Security Act of 1997.

36 The enrollment can be done directly by the self-employed workers or thru their 37 respective guilds, craft unions, worker cooperatives, or other associations acting as their 38 collecting agent for premiums due to SSS.

39 Paragraph (s) of Section 8 under Republic Act 8282, is hereby amended to read as 40 follows.

1 “(s) Self-employed – A self-employed is a person who has his own occupational
2 capacity put to productive use by applying his own capital raised by himself or together
3 with other self-employed persons pursuing related occupational interest.”

4 SECTION 8. Disputes – disputes involving workers under this Chapter shall be 5 under the jurisdiction of the regular courts, without prejudice to the provisions of 6 Article 137 of Republic Act 9520, otherwise known as the Philippine Cooperative Code
7 of 2008, insofar as worker cooperatives are concerned.

8 SECTION 9. Reportorial Requirement – Worker guilds, craft unions, worker
9 cooperatives, and other associations organized and representing self-employed workers
10 must register with the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) and Department
11 of Trade and Industry (DTI) and other regulatory agencies under such forms, 12 conditions, and frequency as may be determined by each particular regulatory 13 government agency.

14 SECTION 10. Penalty Clause – Any individual, association, entity or institution
15 found in violation of this Act shall be punished with a fine of not less than Fifty 16 Thousand Pesos (Php 50,000.00) nor more than One Hundred Thousand Pesos (Php 17 100,000.00).

18 SECTION 11. Implementing Rules and Regulations – All government agencies
19 are hereby mandated to implement rules and regulations that will enact the express 20 policies of this Act, to encourage and promote self-employment as a primary tool for 21 poverty alleviation and enhance the welfare of the self-employed.

22 SECTION 12. Mandatory Assistance – Government agencies with special
23 concern on employment and poverty alleviation such as but not limited to Department
24 of Labor and Employment (DOLE), Cooperative Development Authority (CDA),
25 Department of Trade and Industry (DTI), Department of Interior and Local Government
26 (DILG), Department of Agriculture (DOA), Bureau of Internal Revenue (BIR), National 27 Anti-Poverty Commission (NAPC), and all local government units (LGUs) shall draw 28 and adopt sustainable programs for the empowerment and encouragement of self-
29 employment in support of the express intentions of this Act.

30 SECTION 13. Separability Clause – If any part, section or provision of this Act 31 is held invalid or unconstitutional, other provisions not affected thereby shall remain in 32 full force and effect.

33 SECTION 14. Repealing Clause – All laws, decrees, Orders, issuances, rules and 34 regulations contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby 35 repealed, amended or modified accordingly.

36 SECTION 15. Effectivity – This Act shall take effect fifteen (15) days after its 37 publication in at least two (2) newspapers of national circulation.

38 Approved,
