HOUSE BILL NO. 1907

Introduced by HON. ROGELIO NEIL P. ROQUE

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The import of this measure is to convert the SH Valencia Junction – Barobo – Guinoyoran – Lourdes boundary Dagumbaan Maramag Road– Valencia Road in the City of Valencia Province of Bukidnon into a national road.

This road section serves as one of the focal points connecting the existing national roads in Bukidnon passing through the City of Valencia and the Municipality of Maramag. It is also a working site for agricultural activities in the area.

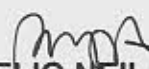

The conversion of the said roads connecting different national roads in Bukidnon Province would provide the agricultural communities in the area, mobility and economical transportation in distributing their agricultural products such as corn, banana and other high-value crops and produce to the market.

It is also worthy to note the development of Lake Apo in Barangay Guinoyoran, a budding tourist destination.

Moreover, the conversion of this road section will also direct the improvement of the area for it shall be incorporated in the menu of priorities by the National Government in terms of public work and highway projects. This conversion can also generate jobs during the construction.

This bill was originally filed during the Fifteenth Congress as House Bill No. 5315 where it was passed by Senate.

Taking into account the implications of this measure, the immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
