HOUSE BILL NO. 2036

Introduced by REP. EVELINA G. ESCUDERO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill repeals Article 355 of the Revised Penal Code, absolutely decriminalizing the crime of libel.

It is the intention of this bill to accord greater protection to freedom of speech and expression specifically those done by means of writing and other similar means by taking away the threat or fear of incarceration, restraint of liberty and even fine.

It is likewise submitted that a strong print media could give great service to the Filipino people in providing an effective mechanism of complete and fearless transparency over the excesses of government in the exercise of its powers and prerogatives.

Immediate passage of this bill is thus earnestly sought.
