

Republic of the Philippines
House of Representatives
Quezon City, Metro Manila

SIXTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 2566

Introduced by HON. TUPAY T. LOONG of the 1st District of Sulu

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Knowing full well that education is one of the most efficient tools in mitigating poverty among our people, it is important that affordable education be made available to as many people as possible. Thus, this bill seeks to convert the Hadji Butu School of Arts and Trades in the municipality of Jolo, Province of Sulu, into a state college to be known as the Hadji Butu State Polytechnic College. Expanding the curricula of this institution in order for it to include more globally competitive competencies will definitely redound to the benefit of our youth in Sulu. In the long run, this can contribute as well in weaning them away from the guile of lawless elements and make them more productive citizens of our country.

Hadji Butu School of Arts and Trades was established in 1928 with Woodworking and Sheet Metal Work as its pioneering courses. Several courses were later added to its curricula but the Second World War wrought heavy damage to its facilities. In 1948, the administrator availed of the magnanimity of the Philippine War Damages Reconstruction and re-built the School. Today, this educational institution needs tremendous improvement and innovation to make it at par with other skills training institutions in the region.

In view of the foregoing, passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
