SIXTEENTH CONGRESS

First Regular Session

House Bill No. 2571

Introduced by Hon. Sol Aragon

EXPLANATORY NOTE

In 2011, lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) activists submitted to the United Nations two reports on the human rights violations against LGBT people in the Philippines. In the first report named "The Status of LGBT Rights in the Philippines, Submission to the Human Rights Council for the Universal Periodic Review 13th Session," the groups Rainbow Rights Project (R-Rights) and the Philippine LGBT Hate Crime Watch (PLHCW) co-authored a documentation of different abuses based on sexual orientation and gender identity in the country since 2007. The second report entitled "A Report on Violations of Human Rights Based on Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity in the Philippines" was authored by the Progressive Organization of Gays in the Philippines (ProGay).

These reports highlight the very real and pressing problem confronting the LGBT community in the Philippines. There can be no true and meaningful democracy if we continue to systematically oppress the LGBT community and turn a blind eye to the abuses committed against them. This bill seeks to address these problems and correct the impression that the Government is powerless to help the LGBT sector. It seeks to create an LGBT desk in every police station to ensure that victims of hate or sexually oriented crimes will have a place they can seek out for assistance.
