SIXTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

HOUSE BILL No. 2573

Introduced by HON. JULIETTE T. UY

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to designate July 29 of every year as Araw ng Villanueva and a special non-working holiday in the said municipality of the province of Misamis Oriental.

Villanueva town is part of the vibrant agro-industrial areas in the second district of Misamis Oriental. It hosts the STEAG power plant that provides employment opportunities to the residents of Villanueva and neighboring towns in the province. The town also hosts a growing number of manufacturing firms. The majority of the people remain dependent of agriculture, fishing and services for their livelihood.

Declaring the Araw ng Villanueva as a special non-working holiday will encourage the people to strive harder in the continuing efforts to improve the lives and livelihood in Villanueva in order to attain and eventually enjoy the fruits of rural industrialization.

Lastly, declaring this holiday is a simple way of recognizing and honoring the generations of people who have made Villanueva the progressive town that it has become, and further inspire more to bring the town to new and greater heights.

The immediate passage of this bill is earnestly sought.

Approved,
