HOUSE BILL NO. 2689

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Beyond the constitutional mandate of protecting and promoting the right and access to quality education is a pragmatic rationale for this legislative measure.

As of latest available data, Barangay Concepcion Dos in the second district of City of Marikina has a population of 46,464 – a large percentage of which is comprised of school-age population. In SSS Elementary School alone, the student population has reached 3,252 students as of latest count. This is but one elementary school in the barangay which annually churns out graduates who have no available recourse for free secondary education within their community. This is because the barangay does not have a public high school.

Due to this vacuum, the parents are forced to enrol their children to private high schools or transfer them to public high schools in other barangays. Having their children enrolled in private learning institutions entail steep expenses which not all families in the barangay can readily afford. Having their children enrolled in high schools located in other barangays entail bigger daily overhead expenses which bleed dry their meager finances. Furthermore, the public high schools in other barangays, which are constrained to accommodate the elementary graduates from Barangay Concepcion Dos have to deal with burgeoning student population in contrast to their limited resources.

To correct this paucity, it is imperative that a law creating a national high school in Barangay Concepcion Dos to be known as SSS National High School be passed immediately.
