HOUSE BILL NO. 2779

Introduced by HONORABLE JOAQUIN M. CHIPECO, JR.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

June 19, 1861 marked the day of birth of the greatest hero of the Philippines. He was called a "many splendored" genius. He was richly dowered by God with superb intellectual, moral and physical qualities. Truly he ranks with the world's geniuses. He was an anthropologist, botanist, businessman, cartographer, entomologist, ethnologist, farmer, folklorist, geographer, grammarian, historian, horticulturist, humorist, lexicographer, linguist, musician, novelist, painter, physician, poet, philologist, philosopher, polemist, psychologist, satirist, sculptor, sportsman, sociologist, surveyor, traveler and zoologist.

More than all these, he was a patriot, hero and martyr. He was called the First Filipino. Unlike many geniuses, he consecrated his God-given talents and even sacrificed his own life for the redemption and welfare of the Filipino people. Verily, a man of his heroism and versatility appears but once in the history of any nation.

The Philippines has been blessed with a man who willingly sacrificed and gave up his life for his undying love for his motherland.

This bill seeks to appropriately give the due honor and recognition for this hero extra ordinaire--- Our National Hero by declaring the day of his birth June 19, a National Holiday, a non-working public holiday throughout the Province of Laguna. It is only proper, and it is about time that his provincemates are given the opportunity to celebrate the momentous day of his birth by appropriate activities.

The country owes so much to this man, we can only repay him so little with this token of reverence on his special day.

The approval of this bill is therefore most earnestly recommended.
