HOUSE BILL NO. 2822

Introduced by Rep. Winston "Winnie" Castelo

EXPLANATORY NOTE

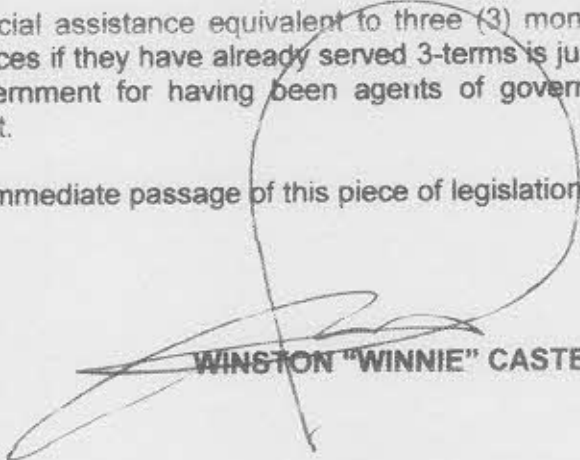

Frontline services depend largely on the role of barangay officials and their time, energies, and resources being channeled to resolve or address a broad spectrum of social and community-based concerns.

Section 2 of Article XIII of the 1987 Constitution stipulates thus, "The promotion of social justice shall include the commitment to create economic opportunities based on freedom of initiative and self-reliance".

The bill takes its moorings on the fact that there are opportunity costs when barangay officials have to perform their duties and responsibilities in practically 24/7 in order to bring to their constituents the highest form of service that they deserve.

Financial assistance equivalent to three (3) months of their basic salary and allowances if they have already served 3-terms is just a small gesture on the part of government for having been agents of government to effect national development.

The immediate passage of this piece of legislation is most fervently prayed for.
