HOUSE BILL NO. 3006

Introduced by the Honorable Ruby M. Sahali

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The geographical location of the Province of Tawi-Tawi makes it difficult to deliver health services to far flung areas and island municipalities. Due to poverty in these far flung areas, the nearest viable possibility to tend to the health services and medical needs of the people is the island of Bongao, the center of business and government in the province. So far, there are 2 District Hospitals, 2 Municipal Hospitals, and the Provincial Hospital, that comprise the Public Hospital System in Tawi-Tawi.

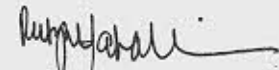

The Datu Halun Sakilan Memorial Hospital is considered as the Provincial Hospital of Tawi-Tawi located in the capital town of Bongao Municipality. The main hospital building consist of a two (2) floors ward wings (East and West Wings also known as the main and extension hospital buildings) and adjacent office buildings for the Integrated Provincial Health Office (IPHO) sitting on a fenced 2.5 hectares land. In 2004 with the assistance from the Philippine Charity and Sweepstakes Office (PCSO), the extended building was constructed to augment the old building on the same site.

Through the years the DHSMH undertook critical interdictions to upgrade its medical manpower complement, equipment and services to address the gradual rise in demand for better medical care services from its clientele coming from nearby island municipalities. The continued rise in the demand may also be attributed to the lack of trained medical staff in the island district and municipal hospitals. Generally, the DHSMH has qualified to become the end-referral hospital in the province. With the advent of public hospitals to become PhilHealth compliant, DHSMH after initial accreditation continues to sustain this accreditation serving PhilHealth members in the Province and those Local Government Units-sponsored PhilHealth members from the other island municipalities. At present, DHSMH continues to sustain its operation despite the lack of position utilizing the DOH-ARMM RN HEALS personnel, Provincial Government Office health volunteers and other health personnel from the field in the province as force multipliers.

This Act shall meet the objectives of the DHSMH to assure the quality and affordability of health services, ensure access to available basic health packages, improved performance of health and hospital system, sustain the continued implementation of PhilHealth's "No Billing Balance" policy, and sustain the catering of PhilHealth members in the province.

The upgrading of DHSMH from its current level to the next level as per this Act is necessary to cope with and meet the demands for quality and affordable health services for the people of Tawi-Tawi.

In view thereof, the early passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
