

REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
House of Representatives
Quezon City

SIXTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 3212

Introduced by Representative Alex L. Advincula

EXPLANATORY NOTE

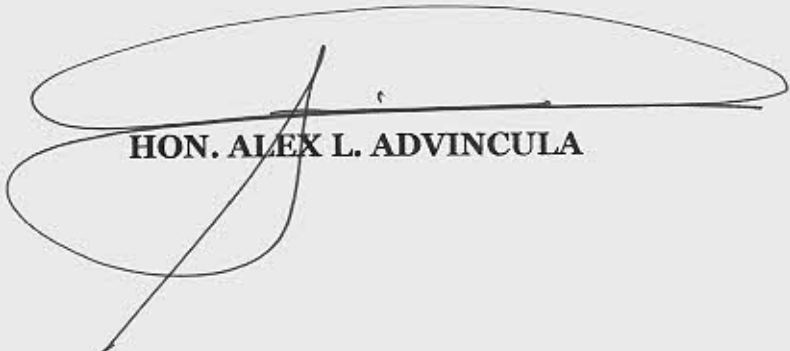

This bill seeks to rename the General Emilio National High School –Annex, in Pasong Buaya II, Imus City, Cavite to General Licerio Topacio National High School in honor of the revolutionary hometown hero of Imus.

Considering that the late General Licerio Topacio devoted his life in serving the Filipino people during the Philippine Revolution and the Philippine – American War, it is appropriate to honor not only the memory but also the life of the aforementioned general by naming a public educational institution, located in his own birthplace, after him.

Furthermore, the separation of which from the General Emilio Aguinaldo National High School Main Campus, was endorsed by the Department of Education – Imus Division Office and the City Government of Imus City, Cavite.

With the passage of this bill, the renaming of the school, along with the approval of its separation, aim to complete the process of providing the necessary personnel and staff as well as other financial resources needed to comply with the mandate of providing quality education to the people of Imus City.

In light of the foregoing, the approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
