SIXTEENTH CONGRESS
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
HOUSE BILL NO. 3417

Introduced by Honorable Oscar "Richard" S. Garin, Jr.
1st District, Iloilo

"AN ACT CONVERTING TUBUNGAN-SAN REMIGIO ROAD INTO A NATIONAL ROAD, APPROPRIATING FUNDS THEREFOR AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES"

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The road section covered by this bill is the Tubungan-San Remigio Road. It is a barangay road that traverses from the town proper of Tubungan, Iloilo and passes through several barangays of the Municipality, thence adjoins the Leon-San Remigio Road which was conceptualized as a shorter route from the Province of Iloilo to the Province of Antique.

This is a vital road section as it connects the town proper of Tubungan, Iloilo and at least twenty (20) barangays thereof, all of which produce sizable quantities of agricultural products and farm animals, to the Leon-San Remigio Road. The Municipality of Tubungan is a 4th class municipality and possesses an immense production potential. Sadly, its agricultural economy has been denied opportunity to reach its full potential, largely due to the lack of sustainable market. Thus, upgrading and constant maintenance of this road section will invariably engender an increased productivity considering that producers will have access to an all-weather road network, thereby enabling them to conduct trade and commerce not only in the nearby municipalities but also in the Province of Antique and Boracay Island.

This proposed measure is also premised on the plenary power of the Congress of the Republic of the Philippines as enshrined in Section 1, Article VI of the 1987 Constitution of the Philippines, thus:

"Section 1. The legislative power shall be vested in the Congress of the Philippines which shall consist of a Senate and a House of Representatives, except to the extent reserved to the people by the provision on initiative and referendum."

Broadly stated, the power Congress to legislate is all-encompassing, limited only by our constitution. It appearing that there is no constitutional impediment attending herein, the proponent respectfully prays that this proposed legislation be given due consideration.
