HOUSE BILL NO. 3825

Introduced by Representative WESLIE T. GATCHALIAN

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to separate the Bagbaguin High School Annex from Dalandan National High School – Bagbaguin Annex (DNHS – Bagbaguin Annex) and convert the high school annex into a separate high school to be known as Bagbaguin National High School.

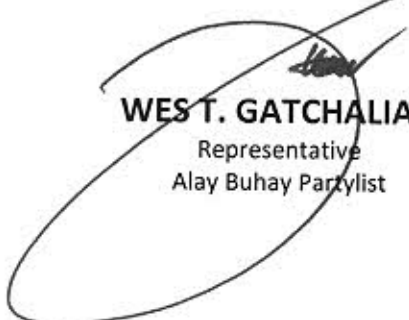

To date, the DNHS–Bagbaguin Annex has a complete curriculum for its secondary course. It has a student population of more or less 1,300 students with almost 30 faculty and staff members and presently headed by a school principal.

The school is also complete in its facilities like computer room, activity center, and a library.

It is intended to primarily serve the entire Barangay Bagbaguin with a population of no less than 14,000 and a land area of 159 hectares in the City of Valenzuela.

The bill will also equitably access quality secondary education in the area and decentralizing the management of the institution.

Foregoing considered, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
